How to build a successful career on REAL passion

What do the following three isolated events have in common?

- Cln. Nathan Cirillo being shot to death (“I would rather die of passion than of boredom.”~ V. van Gogh)
- My 72-year young male client, finalizing his vision for his next mission, voices his disappointment re: the firing of the CBC host of Q: Gian Ghomeshi
- A young So You Think You Can Dance raving fan (female) is moved to tears

How to build a successful career on REAL passion

What is REAL passion? It's:

- A strong feeling of enthusiasm or excitement for, and a commitment toward a specific end, activity, cause or person.
- Life enhancing to you and others: It supports and energizes you to follow your vision (or dreams) and accomplish your goals.
- Connected to your unique Life Purpose. (Tool: Science of hand analysis identifies which one or more of the 14 Life Purposes you have in this present lifetime.)

What is ADDICTIVE passion? It's:

- An obsession of thought and mental preoccupation with an object, act or desire plus the compulsive repetitive behaviour that fulfills the obsession.
- Harmful to you and others.

What your REAL passion checklist needs to include for success:

1. I know what I want most of the time.
2. I'm doing something exciting and important to me.
3. I'm being true to my vision/dream, ideals, values and goals.
4. I'm not limited by other people's demands.
5. I own my decisions and actions, respect my and others' feelings, and compromise when fitting.

What your REAL passion checklist needs to include for success:

6. I speak up and stand my ground re: what I want.
7. I set clear limits and communicate them cleanly.
8. I courageously protect my turf.
9. I accept my emotional intensity and independence.
10. Moving up with, or going deeper into this passion appeals to me.

How to build your successful career on REAL passion... the Mars One Mission way

- Have you heard of the Mars One Mission?
- There are real risks and challenges associated with establishing a settlement on Mars.
- As with product management, space exploration involves the risk of lost time and resources.
- “We choose to go to the Moon, not because it is easy, but because it is hard.”
~ U.S. President John F. Kennedy

How to build your successful career on REAL passion... the Mars One Mission way

EXERCISE

1. Would you do the Mars One journey?
2. What about the Mars One journey or your preference to stay "home" sparks you?
3. Is your current career built on REAL passion, including your Mars One or staying "home" motivators?
4. If yes, how?

NOTE: The answers lie in your INNER (not OUTER) space! 😊

EXERCISE

5. What potential gaps exist?
6. How could you close these gaps: e.g. How could you go deeper or move up? How are you potentially disrespecting yourself?
7. What will your Mars One Mission for the next ten years (2015-2025) or two years (2015-2017) be? What will the Next Giant Leap for YOU be?
8. While on this Mission, what will inspire you to ever improve and evolve?

How to build a successful career on REAL passion

"You are not meant to bear that which you find unpleasant, you are meant to change it. That's why you feel it. Your every twitch of pain and malaise invites you to wake up, pushing you to seek grander truths that will reveal a bigger reality and a more magnificent you, ever closer to an awareness of your true place within reality creation - as a Creator."
